Did you know?
Australia/New Zealand
are the only solely English-speaking countries to have never yet experienced a protestant revival.
Current Australian prime minister Julia Gillard is openly atheistic.

50%! We have finally reached the fifty percent milestone in our financial support. Everybody tells us the second fifty percent comes much quicker and we are praying that is true. One thing is for sure, we are not turning back. We are committed to go forward and are still working toward a November 2013 departure date.

Australian pastor Michael Leslie and Trinity Baptist Church in Calamvaale, which is in the Brisbane area of Australia, have told us that they will sponsor us. This decision came we completed a doctrinal questionnaire and after a church vote. However, as with any other good news, there is always a snag. Trinity Baptist is currently sponsoring another visa so there is concern that the church will not be able to work with two visas at the same time. Pastor Leslie is waiting to hear back from the government on how to proceed.

What's more, after spending time on the phone with Pastor Leslie we discovered that the American missionary who planted that church, whose name is Marvin Nichols, is from our previous hometown of Tyler, TX. That was a pleasant surprise and also opened another door for us.

We had the privilege of working at a junior camp in Graniteville, SC in July where I spoke all week. Praise the Lord, there were eight salvation decisions and one adult who made a life-changing decision to preach. We are thankful that God allows us to take a small part in what He does.

We have a busy fall ahead of us as we travel all over the place representing our mission field. We still need more open doors though.

Prayer requests

1. Pray that the Australian government will allow Trinity Baptist Church in Calaamvale to sponsor two visas at the same time.
2. Pray that we can get into as many mission conferences as possible over the next year.
3. Pray that God will enable and challenge His people to give.
